Introducing Automatic Renewals

JCLC is unveiling a new feature that makes manually renewing books, CDs, and DVDs a thing of the past. As of August 1, 2018 any non-digital item checked out at a JCLC location will be renewed automatically at the end of its lending period. *There are a few exceptions.

*Items won't be renewed if:

- Another patron places a reserve on that item
- The item has reached its maximum number of renewals (2 for most items)
- Your account has accrued $5.01 or more in fines
- The item is not renewable
- Your account activity has been blocked
- The item is an eBook

You will be notified by the courtesy email notice that your item has been automatically renewed. If you do not currently receive courtesy email notices, you will not be notified. You will be alerted with the standard notice, however, when the item is overdue.

You may still renew items manually by using My Account on the JCLC.org website or by calling the library.

ALABAMA
VIRTUAL LIBRARY
Connecting You to a World of Knowledge

It's time for Back-to-School!

And that means homework, projects, and research. The Alabama Virtual Library provides all students, teachers, and citizens of the State of Alabama with online access to essential library and information resources.

Visit: www.avl.lib.al.us

If you have any trouble accessing the site, call the library.

AVL contains current newspapers, journals, magazines, encyclopedias, e-books as well as career, technical, and business resources. Information is updated daily – there is always something new.
