Refunds and Cancellations

Cancellation notice is to be made to the Library at least 48 hours before your meeting time. If you cancel your meeting within this time, a refund of your fee will be given (excluding the deposit). Refunds will be held at the library services desk for 30 days after the cancellation. Cancellations for all meetings should be made to the Library in person, in writing, by phone (205-951-1415) or email (librarian@irondalelibrary.org). All groups with an on-going reservation who fail to meet with the 48 hours cancellation notice for two consecutive dates will have their other meeting times cancelled.

If the library is closed due to unforeseen circumstances when the event is scheduled, then library staff will contact you to reschedule your meeting or refund your rental fee.
