Imagine Your Story

Irondale Public Library

Summer Reading Activities

- Retelling of a classic story
- Traditional story that you’ve never read
- Traditional story from a different culture
- Something that you’ve read before
- Book with magic in it
- Book set in the summer
- Book with lots of pictures
- Book with no pictures
- Book from a bestseller list
- Book about a hobby or sport
- Book you’ve been wanting to read
- Book published this year
- Book over 50 years old
- Read something that is not a book
- Fiction - any topic
- Non Fiction - any topic
- Book published this year
- Read an eBook
- Listen to an audiobook
- Read a magazine
- Collection of poetry or story in verse
- Book recommended by someone who works in a library
- Award winning book
- Graphic novel, graphic nonfiction, or manga
- Book from a genre you don’t usually like
- Biography or memoir
- Book with a character that doesn’t look or live like you
- Other (Think of this as free space to read whatever you want)

Additional activities

You may use books from your list to complete these

- Retell a classic story with your own poem or story
- Tell someone why you love Summer reading
- Dress like a book character
- Read outside
- Make something from a cookbook
- Spend 20 minutes exploring Mango
- Write a letter to a friend
- Create and send a postcard of a book to the library
- Read aloud to someone, or listen to someone read to you
- Attend an online event from the Irondale Library
- Recommend a book to someone
- Watch a movie/short film based on a book
- Write a book review and submit on Beanstack or bring to Irondale Library

Any book activity on this list may be completed with an audiobook. You do not have to complete every activity. Count each book/ activity once unless otherwise noted. This is meant to be fun. Have fun!
Imagine Your Story
Irondale Public Library

Summer Reading begins early this year! May 4!
There are two ways to participate: online, or on paper.

Online: Visit https://irondalelibrary.beanstack.org, create your profile, and begin checking off your reading activities to earn badges. Complete 5 activities and earn a prize*.

On paper: Pick up a copy of the reading log once we're open (or go ahead and print your own at IrondaleLibrary.org) Check off your reading activities from the log. Complete 5 activities and earn a prize*.

*Limit 4. Prizes are age group specific. All prizes will be awarded at the end of summer reading. Prizes cannot be mailed.

Summer Reading is designed for all ages (adults, teens, kids, & babies).

Join us online for programs!
We'll offer virtual programs for adults, teens, and kids this summer. Follow us on Facebook, Instagram, and our online calendar www.IrondaleLibrary.org/events

Not sure what to read?
Find suggestions at IrondaleLibrary.beanstack.org/lists. More lists will be added throughout the summer.

Irondale Public Library
105 20TH STREET SOUTH IRONDALE, AL 35210
205.951.1415 IRONDALELIBRARY.ORG
LIBRARIAN@IRONDALELIBRARY.ORG