stuffed animal sleepover

Sunday, January 26

We're having a special sleepover just for stuffed animals after the library closes! Children can come any time 11:00-3:00 on Saturday, January 25 or 2:00-5:00 on Sunday, January 26 to share a bedtime story and activity with their stuffed animal before dropping them off for Sunday night's sleepover.

No humans are allowed at the sleepover, but everyone can see pictures of the fun on our Facebook page Sunday night!

Stuffed animals may be picked up any time 9:30-7:00 on Monday, January 27 or Tuesday, January 28. Please note that they may not be picked up while the library is closed, so children should not bring a favorite toy that they might need during the night.

WINTER Reading Challenge

LIGHT UP THE MIND

The Irondale Library is joining hundreds of libraries and schools across the country in this year's Winter Reading Challenge! All month long, track your reading at irondalelibrary.beanstack.org or on the Beanstack app. Earn a book from the book sale or a prize from the prize basket for every book you read (up to 10). Plus, help us fill up our snowglobe! Add a snowflake sticker to the snow globe display for every book you read (no limit).

We'll also be competing against other libraries and schools to win great prizes from Penguin Random House, including author visits and new books. Let's light up the mind this winter!
