What Should I Read Next?

We can help you find your next great read!

- Our Summer Reading website has a great set of reading lists for kids and teens: <https://irondalelibrary.beanstack.org/lists>
- Novelist helps readers of all ages find books that match their reading level and interests. Use it to search, browse, or find read-alikes for your favorite titles, authors, and series. Visit www.irondalelibrary.org/ebooks-and-more
- We've developed reading lists around this year's summer reading program. Ask at the desk.
- A selection of recommended sites:
 - www.goodreads.com is a social network for book lovers. Get book recommendations, read or write book reviews, and create personalized lists of books.
 - www.booklistreader.com: Opinion, news, and lists from the book people at Booklist, Book Links, and Booklist online.
 - <http://raroundtable.blogspot.com>: Find out what local librarians are reading with the Readers Advisory Roundtable Blog.

If you're looking for your next book, pick up a copy of BookPage inside the library. BookPage is a discovery tool for readers, highlighting the best new books across all genres.

BookPage is editorially independent; only books they highly recommend are featured.

2019 All Ages Summer Reading Program!

This year, everyone can earn prizes for completing reading and reading-related activities. Just sign up at the library or online at: www.irondalelibrary.org/summer-reading-2019/

We have programs at the library for all ages too! Pick up an events calendar in the library, follow our events on Facebook, and see all of our events online: www.irondalelibrary.org/events/

All summer events are free. The Summer Reading program is sponsored in part by the Friends of the Irondale Public Library.
